

Are you a Mental Health Nurse, Assistant Practitioner, Health Care Assistant or Support Worker?

The Knowledge Service subscribes to the British Journal of Mental Health Nursing & the British Journal of Healthcare Assistants for all staff.

If you are a Nurse, Healthcare Assistant, Support Worker or Assistant Practitioner, these resources are aimed at you.

British Journal of Mental Health Nursing

The British Journal of Mental Health Nursing aims to provide “analysis, commentary and clinical reviews on topics central to the practice of mental health nursing.” If you are revalidating and keeping up to date, this resource provides high quality authors and best practice articles, specific to Mental Health Nursing.

British Journal of Healthcare Assistants aims to be “essential reading for all Healthcare Assistants and Assistant Practitioners who are serious about developing their own career, as well as providing the best possible support for the patients in their care.” If you are completing the Care Certificate or keeping your practice up to date, this journal is aimed at you.

British Journal of

Healthcare Assistants

You can access where ever you have the internet and will need an Open Athens account. If you would like a quick demonstration or training session please contact Outreach Librarian, Rosalind.McNally@mhsc.nhs.uk or Library.Services@mhsc.nhs.uk .

Let us know what you think. If you find these resources useful, would like to find out about these and other new resources please follow our Knowledge Service Twitterfeed